

Columbus State Community College – Ohio University Plan

Bachelor of Science in Sport and Lifestyle Studies Pathway

The Sport and Lifestyle Studies (BSSLS) degree is offered through Ohio University's Department of Recreation, Sport Pedagogy, and Consumer Sciences on the Eastern campus, Lancaster campus, and Zanesville campus. This major provides a broad background in the recreation, sports, health and fitness professions preparing graduates for meaningful employment in the field of sports and recreation. Courses emphasize practical skills in leadership, critical thinking, and creative problem solving within the Liberal Arts tradition, which are also transferrable to a wide range of non-recreation employment opportunities. The flexibility in course selection, along with the requirement for a minor or certificate, allows students to tailor the degree towards their personal needs and interests, thus enhancing their potential to meet community job market demands. Students who follow advising guidelines may be able to complete two minors or a double major. The Bachelor of Science in Sport & Lifestyle Studies may also serve as a degree completion program for transfer students with an associate degree with an emphasis in sport, recreation, or fitness.
